Looking forward to 2021, the Radisson Collection Resort, Nanjing is slated to open as the Radisson Collection's first new-build property in China. It will form part of a new tourism complex in the Jiangsu Horticultural Exposition Park located in Tangshan, an area known for its rejuvenating hot springs. The 151-room hotel will combine contemporary design with local culture and feature a spa, fitness center, and swimming pool, in addition to four meeting venues covering more than 8,500 square feet of space.

About Nanjing

Nanjing, the capital of Jiangsu Province, is situated in the Yangtze River Delta area 190 miles northwest of Shanghai. Recognized as one of the four great ancient capitals of China, Nanjing has served as the capital city of 10 Chinese dynasties and regimes for a total of more than 1,800 years. A sophisticated metropolis and a modern center of history, education, and culture, Nanjing is home to some of the country's most significant historical attractions such as the Xiaoling Tomb of the Ming Dynasty, a UNESCO World Heritage Site; Dr. Sun Yat-sen's Mausoleum; The Presidential Palace; and a City Wall that dates back more than 600 years. Popular attractions also include China's oldest public library and one of the country's first museums, the Nanjing Museum.

Nanjing is accessible by Nanjing Lukou International Airport (NKG). Three train stations – Nanjing Railway Station, Nanjing South Railway Station, and Nanjing West Railway Station – connect Nanjing to all of China’s major cities, including Shanghai, which is a 90-minute ride via bullet train or three hours by car.
